

Summer Conference 2018

“Challenges in Teaching Chemistry” @ Middlesex School, Concord, Massachusetts
August 17-18, 2018

Keynote Speaker: Sam Kean

The New York Times best-selling author

Daily programs at the new Rachel Carson Center will include opportunities to attend workshops on topics including:
Promoting open productive discussions in chemistry classrooms
Addressing student misconceptions
Balancing chemical equations creatively
Teaching chemistry topics with card sorting

Organic Lab for the High School Classroom

Introduction to free modeling resources for HS Students

Participate in “Chemistry Camp”: a discussion of real challenges that you experience at your school.

Join us on Field Trips including to the Middlesex School Observatory.

Complete registration for NEACT members: $125 for both days**

Includes: a light breakfast, lunch, breaks and Friday night dinner

PDPs will be available for Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut teachers.

**Purchase orders are accepted

1st time attendee? There is financial help. Ask about our scholarships.

Email Contact: Kathys5@cox.net

Register Here.

